

Luxe Life with Robin Leach
February 17, 2009

Photo: Heat Communications

Piero Selvaggio at the VINO 2009 Italian Wines conference.

Congratulations to Vegas restaurateur Piero Selvaggio. He was a recipient of the first Distinguished Service Award presented by the Italian Trade Commission at the VINO 2009 Italian Wines conference. Piero, who owns Valentino in The Venetian and Giorgio's in Mandalay Place, also was one of only eight honorees in the U.S. to be selected from importers, distributors, retailers, educators, journalists and restaurateurs to be inducted into the Hall of Fame for his lifelong dedication to the education and marketing of Italian wines in America.