

October 2009

Chef Luciano Pellegrini, executive chef and Partner for the Valentino Restaurant Group

Outside of the two restaurants we operate here in Las Vegas—Valentino and Giorgio— my favorite places would be:

Get more information on Culinary Travel.

Thomas Keller's Bouchon at the Venetian, for its breakfast and brunch. In fact, it's my favorite breakfast place in the city.

My oldest daughter just loves Mon Ami Gabi at Paris Las Vegas and we order the same thing every time we go. It's right across from the fountain show at Bellagio so the view is also great.

Via Brasil Steakhouse is off the strip in Summerlin and is an all-you-can eat Brazilian steakhouse. They have about 18 different kinds of meat they serve you tableside plus a really nice salad bar.

Chef Andre Rochat of Andre's is a dear friend and we just loved original place in downtown Las Vegas, but sadly it closed this year—so we go to his place inside the Monte Carlo instead.

Compiled by Sarika Chawla for PeterGreenberg.com.

Check out more guests from Peter's show here.